

School Profile

SCHOOL DESCRIPTION

Saints Peter and Paul is the premier Catholic, parish, college preparatory school on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Founded in 1955 by Saints Peter and Paul Parish and the Dominican Sisters of Sparkill, New York, the school serves students from grades PreK3 through 12.

FACULTY AND STAFF

The high school has a faculty and staff of 21, 11 of whom hold Masters degrees or higher. The average teaching experience is 18 years and there is a student-teacher ratio of 8:1.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The course of study is exclusively college preparatory. A tracking is used, consisting of four levels: Foundations, Academic, Honors and Advanced Placement. There are over 100 courses offered as part of the curriculum including 20 Honors and 11 Advanced Placement courses. Opportunities for global learning courses are available to students.

Student schedules are created through student interest and teacher recommendations. An Academic Catalog is published annually with more detailed information on the academic curriculum and policies.

GRADING POLICY

Grades are reported on quarterly reports as the unweighted, numeric average. The GPA is reported on transcripts as weighted according to the difficulty level of the course. The GPA is based on a 4.0 scale with Honors (1.25) and AP (1.50) receiving higher quality points.
